John 1.1-5, 14

Over the centuries, God has been so misunderstood by humankind, the crown of his creation. Though he loves us and is for us, we have accused him of being against us. At Christmas, God performed the ultimate demonstration of his love and care for us: he became one of us. What are some of the ramifications for our lives today? Here are four truths...

Jesus shows us what _____ is _____
_____. (Hebrews 1.1-3)

Jesus is the _____ who _____ us from death and _____ us to God. (Hebrews 2.14-18)

Jesus _____ with us and _____ us in our weaknesses. (Hebrews 4.14-15)

Jesus is our _____.
(John 15.13-15)

Christmas is AMAZING! It is about God the Son, Creator of heaven and earth, who lived in glory with God the Father, choosing, out of his great love for us, to become ONE OF us so that we might finally understand who he is and who we are meant to be. Won't you put your trust in him?
