John 5.31-47

Jesus had just told the people who he was—and is: the Son of God, one who joins his Father in his work, and who has been entrusted by with judgment and the power of eternal life. But why should people believe this? Here Jesus tells us who (and what) testifies on his behalf to give added credence to his claims...

❖ _____ the _____

❖ The _____ of Jesus

❖ The _____

❖ _____

That's the testimony. Will you believe—and likewise testify?
