John 9.13-41

Jesus had just healed a man who had been blind since birth! But the spiritually-blind Pharisees could not get past the fact that this “work” occurred on a Sabbath. They overlooked relationship with God as they focused keeping often-meaningless outward rituals. So they questioned the no-longer-blind man, and from his answers we gather some wonderful insights about how to easily and effectively share with others what Jesus has done for us, how he has impacted our lives...
