2 Corinthians 5.17-21

We are called to share the gospel—the “good news” of Jesus—with those around us. But just what is the gospel? There is only one message, and it is a message of grace and peace. However, there are many ways we can share the good news. Let’s note some today...

The Message of Reconciliation

A simple outline

- God _____ us and _____ us
- We have _____, resulting in _____ with God and eternal _____
- God demonstrated his continuing love by sending Jesus to die as a _____ or _____ to bring us peace
- We must respond with _____ in Jesus and _____ from our sins to have peace with God

How You Share

Many ways...

Two considerations

- What is most _____ for you?
- What is most _____ by others?
- Some examples...

We are just over half way through our 40 Days of Sharing emphasis. I hope we are beginning to learn to share the good news—with grace and without fear.
