40 Days of Sharing

Begins Sunday, August 6

Jesus commanded his followers: “Go and make disciples of all nations...” Here at Ancient City, we speak of disciples growing in “head, heart, hands, and feet.” The “feet” represent sharing the good news of Jesus with others — as Scripture says, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news.” Beginning August 6, we will focus for forty days on growth in this area. Each day, there will be a devotional as we spend time focusing on what God says and learning how to put his word into practice in simple ways. Each Sunday’s message will advance the theme. Each Wednesday night will bring additional practical training to help you do what you have always wanted to do: share your faith with grace and without fear. We hope the 40 Days of Sharing will be helpful and encouraging to you.

Invite a Friend: Everyone needs a church to answer the deep questions of life, to rejoice with in life's special moments, to show love when facing sorrows, tragedies, and discouragement, and to reveal God, his Word, and his plan. The number one reason someone visits a church is a personal invitation - We have invitation cards available in the Welcome Center. Feel free to grab some to use to invite friends!
