Resurrection Sunday

Today is Resurrection Sunday, the culmination of Holy Week. We began the week with Palm Sunday — a joyous celebration of Christ's Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem — and continued with worship experiences that commemorated both the solemnity of the Lord's Supper and the agony of Good Friday. Just like Jesus' original followers, we can sense the relief and joy that come with an empty tomb. He is risen! He is risen indeed!

There will be a brief information meeting right after worship next Sunday, April 24, to answer questions in more detail. Use the Communication Card to let us know of your possible interest in participating or attend next week's meeting for more details.

A Community Church: Churches exist in all shapes and sizes, from the house church to the megachurch. While each has its place, God has called us to be a community church, a gathering where people can be surely recognized by face and often by name, a church where members live within the larger St. Augustine community, a church where you can get easily involved in Life Groups and ministries, a church where you can know the pastor and the pastor can know you. Most guests tell us they really feel welcomed, that Ancient City people take the initiative in being friendly. Everyone needs a church, and we would love to become yours!

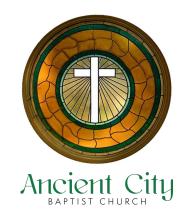

Life Groups (Sunday School): LG's meet on Sundays at 9:40 a.m. In these small group settings, attendees get to know one another better, study the Bible and discuss its application to life, and minister to each other and the community. We have Life Groups for most ages. Use the Communication Card to request more information.
