Genesis 4.3-16

It's the first question asked by humankind that is recorded in the Bible, and its answer is still being debated today: "Am I my brother's keeper?" It was delivered, not in honesty, but in sarcasm resulting from bitterness and envy. Here, from Cain's failure, we can learn two lessons when envy and bitterness enter our lives...

❖ I am _____ for my _____.

❖ I am _____

"If anyone says, 'I love God,' yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother."
[1 John 4.20-21]
