Genesis 11.1-9

Many of us wear “masks” in life, and except at Halloween, they are almost always designed to make us look better than we are. Sometimes we place a mask on God, too, and accuse him of not really caring. Let's see an example of each today as we study The Tower of Babel.

❖ Man's _____ is often masked by his _____.

❖ God's _____ is often masked by man's _____.

Today, let's begin to remove some masks...
first, from ourselves, so that we can truly become more holy;
second, from God, so that we might understand his love and grace more clearly.
