Genesis 29.1-22

True love. Boy meets girl. Boy and girl fall in love. Boy and girl get engaged. Boy and girl look forward excitedly to their wedding day—a day of anticipation, a day of celebration, and a day of consecration. And the wedding night promised a wonderful intimacy of one flesh. It was once a concept held up as the ideal in our culture, but it has sadly slipped away. Today, in looking at the beautiful story of Jacob and Rachel, we rediscover the truth of God: True love waits!

❖ True love waits for the _____.

❖ True love waits for the _____.

God can forgive us, cleanse us, and restore us from any sin. And let's allow him to do that. Yet, as we look to the future, let us recommit ourselves to the plan of God in all aspects of our lives. And as it touches on God's idea of true love, let's recapture and embrace God's wonderful truth: True love waits!
