Genesis 29.16-30

Jacob was in love with Rachel and had agreed to work seven years for her hand in marriage. And because of his great love for her, the seven years seemed like only a few days. But on the morning after his wedding ceremony, Jacob awakened to a disappointing surprise. The deceiver had been deceived! Perhaps Jacob learned some lessons about life from the way things had turned out...

❖ God is _____;
as you _____, so shall you _____.

❖ God is _____;
He will _____ his _____.

Don't use God's grace as an excuse for continual sinning. You will, in general, reap what you sow. Sow to please the Spirit of God, and from God you will reap eternal life!
