Genesis 30-31

In Deuteronomy 5 we are told to walk with God and obey him “so that you may live, prosper, and have a long life in the land you will possess.” This sentiment is repeated several times in the Bible. God wants us to prosper in our lives. Today, as we continue to look into the life of the patriarch Jacob—also known as Israel—we can learn three lessons about prosperity. The first is a warning; the other two are simple principles...

❖ Don't make _____ your _____.

❖ _____.

❖ _____.

God not only desires to see us prosper. He shows us how. And he brings it about. Let's do what God says so that he can prosper us as he desires in the days ahead.
