Genesis 32-33

Almost everyone has some pain associated with the past. It may have come from our own decisions and actions or from events over which we had little or no control. For many, the pain of the past can be paralyzing. The patriarch Jacob had pain resulting from broken family relationships. From today's story, we can learn some principles that can help us make peace with our past...

- ❖ _____ follow God's Word for the _____.

- ❖ Be careful of _____ made in _____ and _____.

- ❖ Remember _____ as you seek _____ help.

- ❖ Learn to _____ who is _____ with you.

- ❖ Seek _____ and make _____ as appropriate.

You can make peace with the past through the power of God. Have you come to the place of making peace with God himself? He has made it possible through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus Christ.
