James 1.26-27

Do you consider yourself a dedicated Christian—a person of pure faith? Why or why not? In this wrap-up to the first chapter of James, we encounter some help in making a more objective judgment of whether or not our faith toward God is real...

One sign of “useless religion”:

An _____

- James 3.3-12
The effective cure: a changed _____

Your heart is revealed by your unguarded words. Your faith is revealed by your self-control in speech. What are your words saying about you?

Two signs of sincere faith:

1. Ministry to the _____
- James 2.14-17

What ministries are you performing? What ministries might the Father be calling you into?

2. Choosing _____ way over the _____
- James 4.1-6
The world: “_____ that wage war within you.”

In what ways is the world “staining” you? What can you do to stop it?

What about it? Do you have pure faith?
