Acts 4.12; John 14.6

As communication and transportation advances make us more of a global village, we notice that many people who become our friends have many differences from us, including differences in beliefs about God. Because of pleasant contacts with these people, many find it hard to believe that Jesus is the only way to heaven. Are Christians exclusive? Arrogant? Do we seek to put others down? Or is Jesus just one of many ways to heaven, as many say today?

The answers to these questions become more clear when we truly understand the message of Jesus:

❖ Understand the Problem: _____

❖ Understand the Solution: _____

When we understand the problem and the solution, it is no longer so hard to believe that Jesus is the only one who has the ability to open up heaven for us. He came to give us life abundant and eternal. Will you respond to him today?
