John 4.27-42

Why are you a Christian? Because your parents are? Because your spouse is? Because some of your friends are? While these are good places to start with faith, you want to be sure in the end that you have first hand faith. From today's story, let's note three important truths each one of us needs to embrace...

Sharing my _____ is important _____ work

I have a responsibility to _____ my faith

I need to develop a _____

Can you say with these Samaritans about Jesus that you "know that this really is the Savior of the world"?
